A Casebook on Harold Pinter's "The Homecoming" From Grove Press

John Lahr, a well-known theater critic himself has assembled the most perceptive critical essays available on that enigmatic masterpiece of Harold Pinter's The Homecoming. Also included are interviews that elucidate the approach to the play by the director, a designer, and various actors. As Lahr writes in his introduction: "What follows is a "casebook" of a play already acknowledged as a major contribution to the theater of this century. The book is divided between the practical and theoretical, a discussion and not a summing up.
