Hunter (Crossfire series Book 2) By Gennita Low

Military Romance! 4.5 stars from Romantic Times Reviews

From the talented pen of Gennita Low comes the second installment in her exciting Navy SEALS trilogy.

Hawk McMillan, SEAL commander, is on a lone mission. To get close to Dragan Dilaver, a Kosovo kingpin involved in drugs and arms-trafficking, Hawk helped him escape from Asia and return to his former country of Yugoslavia. Now Hawk has to discover where certain weapons have been dropped for Dilaver over the diverse regions of Montenegro, Macedonia and Albania — not an easy task for someone unfamiliar with the territory. In order for the operation to succeed, he needs a tracker and the only available person is CIA contact agent Amber Hutchens.

Beautiful and smart, Amber has made a life for herself in Velesta, Macedonia and she is more than capable of assisting Hawk in finding the cache of hidden weapons. Despite the danger of exposure and torture, they risk everything in their mission to strike down Dilaver and his ruthless gang — even their love.

Editorial Review

From the Author

This is a new edition of the previously titled The Hunter. I received my rights back and wanted to use all my original titles for my SEALseries.

PROTECTOR

HUNTER

SLEEPER (previously titled by publisher as Sleeping With The Agent)

(Her Secret) PIRATE (a SHORT story that is in an anthology titled SEAL of my Dreams)

Please note that there are hot buttons for certain readers in this story. Illegal drugs and women trafficking issues, tied in with illegal weaponsales. War stuff. You know, things military men get into overseas. For this series, I researched a lot of World Health Organization reports and interviews of captured women and children and I wanted to help bring awareness of this heartbreaking and inhumane subject.

There are many non-profit organizations who are fighting this ongoing "war," such as Coalition Against Trafficking In Women, EXPAT and Deborah's Gate. These are my issues. In between all the humor and sexiness of my romances, these dark topics are always foremost on my mind, and thus, could be upsetting to those who want a lighter read. But in all things, there is always light. Love. Hope. And that's why I love writing military romantic suspense.

About the Author

Gennita Low is a former translator who speaks fluent Chinese, Malay, German, Russian, and English. Gennita is co-owner of a roof construction business and quite probably the only female roofer in central Florida. She is the author of four previous novels -- The Hunter, The Protector, Facing Fear, and Into Danger -- and is a winner of the Romantic Times Best Romantic Intrigue Award of 2003.

This Hunter (Crossfire series Book 2) can be the reply, oh how comes? A book you know. You are therefore out of date, spending your spare time by reading in this completely new era is common not a geek activity. So what these guides have than the others?

Sandra Fritz:

As a college student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Hunter (Crossfire series Book 2) can make you experience more interested to read.
