La Modista De La Reina/ the Queen's Fashion Designer (Spanish Edition)

By Catherine Guennec

Rose Bertin, una pobre costurera de la Picardia, llega a Paris con quince años convencida de que allí encontrara trabajo y un futuro. Trabajadora incansable, pronto logra abrirse su propio camino y cuando la duquesa de Chartres se encapricha de sus diseños, la vida de Rose cambia para siempre. Sus creaciones brillan por su diversidad e inventiva y atraen a la recién llegada archiduquesa Maria Antonieta Habsburgo-Lorena. Los deseos de la que será, sin duda, la reina más admirada y odiada de Francia, se unen con la inspiración de la divina Bertin quien, convertida en modista de la reina, consigue que sus trajes vistan a las reinas de Suecia, España y Bohemia y crea un auténtico imperio del traje desde su tienda en la calle Saint Honore. A través de la mirada de una mujer audaz y extraordinaria, Catherine Guennec logra recrear todo el esplendor de Versalles y los convulsos años del reinado de Maria Antonieta. / Rose Bertin, a poor seamstress in Picardy, arrived in Paris with her fifteen years old convinced she'll find there a job and a future. Tireless worker, she soon manages to open her own way and when the Duchess of Chartres becomes fond of her designs, Rose's life changes forever. Her creations shine by its diversity and inventiveness, and attract the newcomer Archduchess Marie Antoinette Habsburg-Lorraine. The wishes of what will be undoubtedly the most admired and hated queen of France.
