Editorial Review

Review

"To help students remain focused and organized, I prefer the lab manual to emphasize lab activities/procedures. I find the photos and illustrations accompanying the procedures very helpful to the students. The lab reinforces lecture materials and provides students an opportunity for honing critical thinking and analytical skills."

-Andrea Dodge, North Shore Community College

"[Including the "Review and Practice Sheets in MasteringA&P] is a great idea. It will make the integration of lecture and lab much easier."

-Amir Afshar, Bucks County Community College

About the Author

Michael G. Wood is a Professor of Biology at Del Mar College in Corpus Christi, Texas, where he has taught anatomy and physiology and biology for over 20 years. He has received the "Educator of the Year" and "Teacher of the Year" awards from the Del Mar College student body and from the local business community. He received his M.S. in 1986 at Pan American University, now the University of Texas at Pan American, where his research examined the ecological impact of an introduced species used widely in aquaculture (the blue tilapia) on the native fish population in the Rio Grande drainage of South Texas. He is a member of the Human Anatomy and Physiology Society (HAPS).

Sylvia Medina:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
