Bran Mak Morn By Robert E. Howard

Bran Mak Morn is a stone age warrior living in ancient but historic times. He is the King of the mysterious and ancient Picts of Caledonia, the first acknowledged ruler of those constantly-feuding tribes in over 500 years. His people are pure savage, one small step up the evolutionary ladder from their cave-dwelling ancestors.

The (barely) united Picts are flung up against the iron legions of Imperial Rome, in a war to the death

There are seven stories in the volume. Four are 100% Howard, originally published in Weird Tales. The origin of the other three is not given. They may have been authored by editor Glenn Lord, or expanded from unfinished manuscripts REH left behind. Doesn't matter -- they are all good!
